Faculty of Pharmacy

AIN SHAMS UNIVERSITY

Vision

- Scientific excellence
- Continuous development of the therapeutic health system
- Reaching a world class position in the field of clinical pharmacy

Mission

- Focus on the role of the pharmacist in providing health care inside and outside hospitals.
- Graduation of a distinguished pharmacist qualified to work in public and private pharmacies and pharmaceutical companies.
- Increased competitiveness of program graduates at the regional level.
- Participation in community service and environmental development.
- Commitment to achieve quality standards in pharmaceutical education.

FACULTY OF PHARMACY
AIN SHAMS UNIVERSITY
Accredited by NAQAAE

ACPE INTERNATIONAL

Pharmacy & Pharmacology
QS

ASU

Ranking & Accreditation

QS STARS™ RATING SYSTEM

Education

Bachelor of Pharmacy-PharmD (Clinical Pharmacy)- Credit Hours System Degree requirements:

175 credit hours distributed over 10 semesters. The cumulative GPA should not be less than 2 + Passing the university's requirements for graduation + Passing a summer field training period with a total of 100 actual training hours. Study language: English. Course evaluation: includes periodicals, practical, written and oral exams and the minimum requirements to pass any course is 60% of its total marks.

Duration of study (5+1): Five academic years (five levels distributed over ten semesters) + one academic year of advanced field training (excellence).

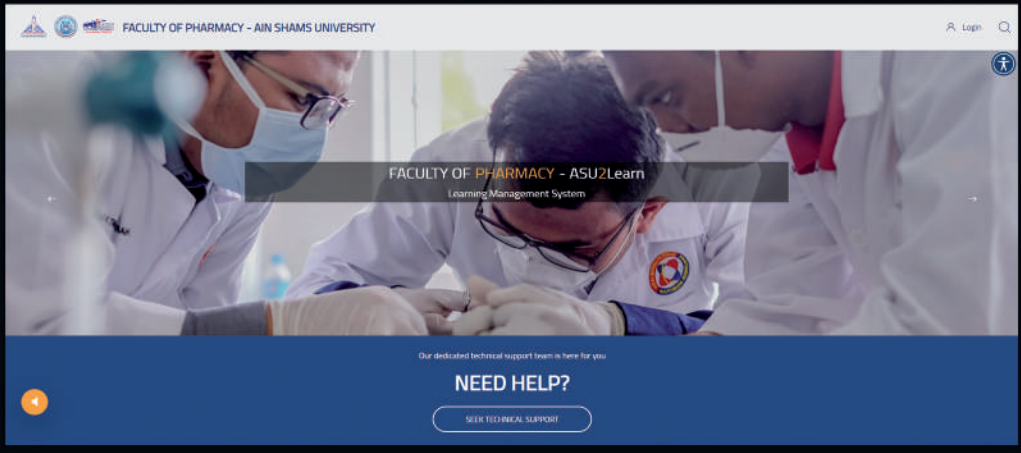
The advanced field training (year of excellence) includes six rotations in different work places each of six weeks, and presentation of a graduation research project.

Each level (academic year) is divided into two semesters (Fall & Spring)
Each semester includes 15 weeks. Some courses may be offered in a 6-8 weeks of intensive study during summer semester.

Faculty of Pharmacy - Ain Shams University Undergraduate programs has been granted ACPE International Accreditation USA

ACPE accreditation is a prestigious recognition and rigorous process that evaluates the quality and effectiveness of the College of Pharmacy's curricula and programs. Accreditation ensures that the college meets the highest standards in curricula, faculty qualifications, facilities, resources, student services, and educational outcomes.

e-learning Portal



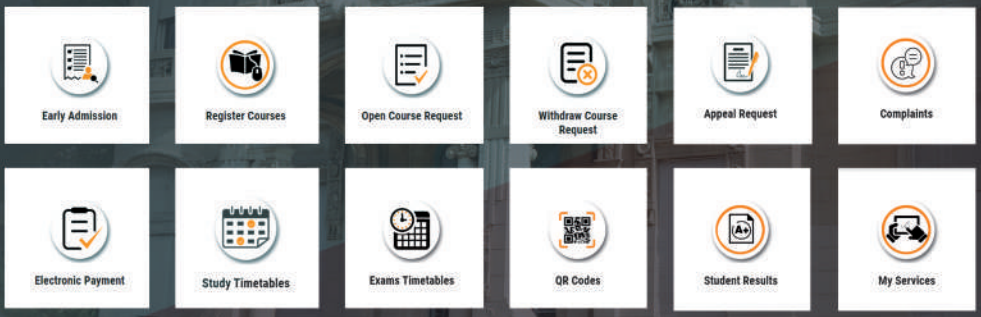
Your Gate to Excellence

Areas of work for graduates of Clinical Pharmacy Program

- Clinical pharmacist: private/governmental hospitals.
- Pharmaceutical companies: quality control/production/R &D/sales/marketing/digital marketing.
- Pharmacies: community/hospital/institutional/private/governmental.
- Academic field: teaching and scientific research

Students E-Services

All the student needs is on one page: course registration, fees payment, e-learning platform, study schedules, exam schedules and results.



Admission

Our programs accept students who have got a minimum admission grade for acceptance set by the main admission coordination office for Egyptians or the general administration for international students.
International students can apply via the Ministry of higher education general administration for international students website.

For more information :

website: https://pharma.asu.edu.eg
Dean office: deanoffice_2@pharma.asu.edu.eg
Vice Dean for Education & Student Affairs: viced.students@pharma.asu.edu.eg
Pharm D (clinical) program office: pdc@pharma.asu.edu.eg
International Students & Mobility office (for international Students): ismo@asu.edu.eg
International students coordinator: iso@pharma.asu.edu.eg